"The Year at

Classes and exams . . . pals and professors
. . . elections and fraternities . . . open house
. . . chapel services . . . Y.W.C.A. parties
. . . outings . . . bull sessions . . . these are memories that enter our minds when we review the past year.

Lenoir Rhyne, like all other schools, was greatly affected by the advent of peace . . .
influx of veterans . . . over-crowded dormitories . . . inter-collegiate baseball and basketball . . . Men!!!

It must be exams!*

Lenoir Rhyme "

As the present fades into the past, the campus life of the year 1946 will become dim and blurred in our memory . . . the boy who drove the gray convertible . . . the girl who knew all the answers in class . . . the student who helped you with those difficult math problems or French sentences . . . who were they?

In order to preserve the present for the future, we present . . . THE 1946 HACAWA.

To Mrs. Pearl S. Deal

For a fine example of Christian living, for beautiful May Days, for the honor brought to Lenoir Rhyne through the Playmakers, for loyalty, for twenty years . . . we dedicate THE 1946 HACAWA to MRS. PEARL S. DEAL.

In Memoriam

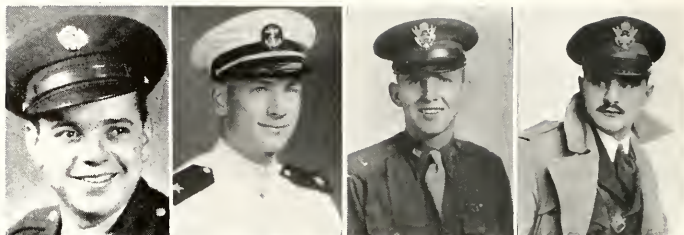

In memory of Professor V. V. Aderholdt, whose untiring service to, and interest in the college never failed; who was an excellent teacher, an understanding friend, and a fine Christian gentleman.

To Those Who Have Given Their

In the midst of this, our new year of peace, we pause to reflect upon those who have paid the supreme sacrifice—especially those who have gone out from our midst never to return.

We are glad that we have known them, worked, played, and laughed with them. They walked among us for a time, and when they went away, they took with them a thousand memories.

We are grateful for their sacrifice. We pledge ourselves anew to the task of rebuilding the world that the children of the present and the future may live in a world of lasting peace.

—G. CHRISTINE HUDDLE.

"THE UPPER CRUST"

PRESIDENT MONROE SPEAKS AT ALUMNI
BANQUET, JUNE 2, 1945

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Lenoir Rhyne College is a fellowship of learning, loving and living. Here we come into possession of that knowledge which most truly fits us for association with our fellow-men. In this fellowship the students are interested in one another; and Christian education here enables them to cause that love to embrace all mankind for whom Christ died. Lenoir Rhyne College prepares for life and enables students to live a more abundant life.

P. E. MONROE, President

The autobiographies of these ten Lenoir Rhyne seniors appeared in the 1945-46 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. They were selected by an unbiased and anonymous faculty committee.

The students are chosen on the basis of character, leadership in extra-curricular activities, scholarship and the possibility of future usefulness to business and society. Personnel and business houses consult Who's Who in considering employees.

The Inter-Fraternity Council, composed of the president and one member from each of the fraternities and the Dean of Men, is a relatively new organization on the campus of Lenoir Rhyne. It was formulated in the fall of 1945 for the purpose of strengthening the ideals and principles of the members of both the campus fraternities. In such a capacity this organization finds itself in a position to strengthen the relationship of all persons concerned, as well as the college itself.

We take our hats off to the vets we so proudly welcomed back to our basketball team at the beginning of the second semester: to Coach Clarence Stasavich, who returned to us after serving in the Navy; and, to three former L. R. Lettermen: Mike Gibson, guard; Charlie Bost and Don Stafford, forwards.

Among the teams to meet the Bears were Marion 51—L. R. 36; Marion 42—L. R. 39; Hanes Hosiery 42—L. R. 44; Moore General Hospital 37—L. R. 33; Hanes Hosiery 41—L. R. 37; Moore General Hospital 54—L. Sure enough! We could once more go to the bleachers and see our team competing with other college teams. We supported them with cheers and traveled with them whenever possible. Our dreams of intercollegiate sports was now becoming a reality. With baseball returning we knew the other sports we had longed for would follow.

Appalachian yielded to Lenoir Rhyne in three games last season. The scores were: 8 to 6, 19 to 8, and 28 to 11. Catawba overpowered L. R. 23 to 0, 13 to 0, and 16 to 2.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Lenoir Rhyne girls yielded to Hanes Hosiery, 27 to 11, in the only defeat of the season. Other teams to meet the force of the Bearettes were Moore General Hospital, 23 to 36; Shelby All-Stars, 23 to 31; Valdese C. C., 27 to 35; Valdese C. C. 14 to 29; Appalachian, 21 to 21; Mitchell, 35 to 37; and Catawba 16 to 32.

E. Ketner, E. Hill, Wilson, M. Cline, M. Mackie, B. Devine, S. Hill, V. Shidal, Z. Smith, C. Black and B. Freeman were in the line-up.

GIRLS' SPORTS

We are anxiously looking forward to the return of intercollegiate tennis; to the day when L. R. will again be the North State Champs.

The Silver Stirrup Club was organized last October. The riders are: Carol Drum, Billy Bebe Fulenwider, Doris Liles, Mary Young, Merrium Johnson, and Betty Gaither, who serves as president.

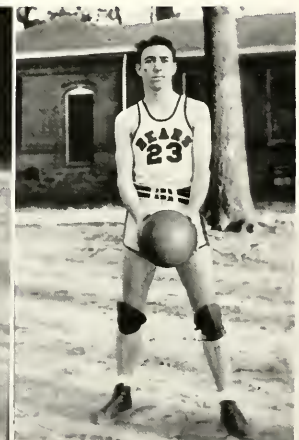

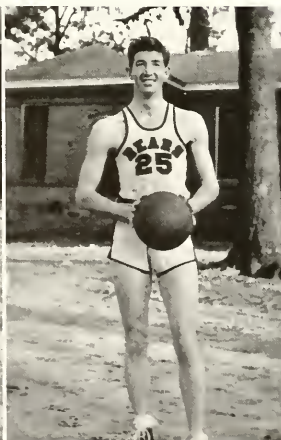

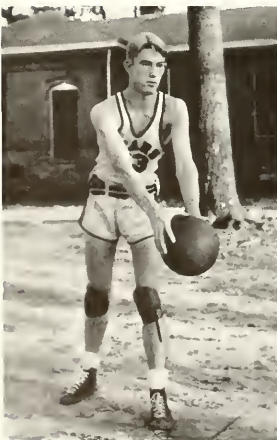

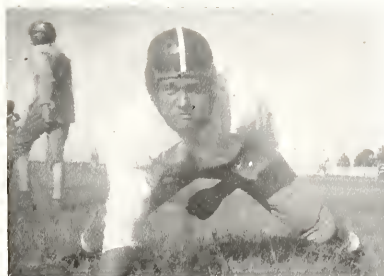

The players in the first string were Ritchie, Entzi, Miller, Michael, Elliott and Walker . . . Stafford, Gibson, and Bost were added second semester.

From the line of sports, the girls chose hunting . . . three 'possums . . . not bad!

L. R. Lettermen are Dorus Bennett, Jim Elliott, "Tweet" Wycoff, Ray Ritchie, Jack Young, Edward Entzi and Don Michael.

SPORTS SNAPS

Veterans who were L. R. Lettermen are Whitey Hefner, Burton and Frank Barger, Mike Gibson, Charlie Bost, Baine Sisk, Don Stafford, Gene Miller and Ray Von Link.

Spring football practice, the first since 1942, began February 11. With the spring squad and the prospects for next fall, it looks as though Lenoir Rhyne will be victoriously clashing with their rivals.

Spring also brought with it baseball practice. Having intercollegiate baseball brought back in '45, this season offered much enthusiasm for Lenoir Rhyne fans.

Basketball . . . Baseball . . . Football . . . Tennis . . . no longer intramural . . . The spotlight again shines on the Lenoir Rhyne Bears.

With Your Eyes

So much depends on correct eyesight—your health, your success, your value to the people around you.

SAVE your vision by having your eyes examined—and properly fitted with glasses
if you need them.

PROTECT your vision with good light.
I.E.S. BETTER LIGHT BETTER SIGHT
lamps provide the best light for studying and reading.
